

The Town of Fletcher, North Carolina, serving a community of 8,000 residents, is currently accepting applications for a full-time Police Sergeant position. The position is assigned to the patrol division and requires the enforcement of state laws and local ordinances as well as performing supervisory duties in leading, training, and participating in patrol related activities within the Police Department.

The Fletcher Police Department is a community policing agency that emphasizes service to a very supportive community. The department adheres to the values of Teamwork, Professionalism, and Dedication. The Town of Fletcher is located in the mountains of Western North Carolina, just south of Asheville, NC. The police department is made up of 21 full time and 2 part time employees.

Qualified applicants must possess a high school diploma. Five years of law enforcement experience is required. Four years of experience may be accepted if the candidate possesses an Associate's Degree from an accredited education institution. The successful candidate must have a valid North Carolina driver's license and be certified as a law enforcement officer with the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission.

The position requires working rotating shifts and includes working some nights, weekends, and holidays. The salary range is $48,000 to $60,000. The Town offers a comprehensive benefits package to its employees that includes medical, dental, retirement savings plans, & tax-free reimbursement accounts. Applications should be accessed and submitted on the Town of Fletcher's website at www.fletchernc.org/departments/human-resources/. The Town of Fletcher is an equal opportunity employer.