HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book is designed to assist you in as you consider your print pricing. This book comes pre-loaded with The UPS Store recommended pricing and you should adjust the prices accordingly to reflect your Center's pricing and local market. Each of the fields for price and SKU are set as an editable form field.

There are three sections in this book:

Common Product Pricing

This section presents you with an at - a - glance view of pricing for commonly ordered products. This is by no means an all inclusive list of print products, but designed to help you initiate conversations with your customers about products. A few complementary products are listed to help you engage your customer to help meet and exceed their needs.

Use this section when a customer is looking for pricing on products that meet these pre - configured options. If your customer would like a different quantity than one listed, use the price per piece from the next lower listed quantity. If your customer needs customizing of the product, then move to the Printing Component Pricing to build a custom quote.

Printing Component Pricing

This section presents you with a detailed view of the pricing attributes and components you offer to your customers. You can use this section to build custom quotes for any number of products. Simply use the Print Services Job Ticket to identify the components needed to build the desired product, then add up the pricing from there. SKUs are listed if you'd like to use your POS system to assist in calculating the price.

Additional Resources

Once you price the job, you may need assistance in completing all or parts of the customer job. Outsourcing grids are provided here for you to give you an at - a - glance view of your print production support. Engage with other local The UPS Store locations to fill out the grid for the services each of them offer. You can also use approved vendors to complete your print work.

Legal Disclaimer – Print Services Pricing Book

The UPS Store® Recommended Pricing is provided to assist franchisees as they consider establishing or updating pricing for products and services in their respective Centers. The UPS Store Recommended Pricing shall be derived from market-based pricing created as a result of competitive evaluations performed by The UPS Store, Inc. personnel. The UPS Store, Inc. recommends that you review the suggested pricing, evaluate pricing in your local market, assess price sensitivity of your customers and make pricing decisions for your Center accordingly.

The UPS Store Recommended Pricing is not intended to replace the franchisee's judgment in understanding the needs of his or her business. Franchisees are solely responsible for setting profit margins goals, prices, and, sales tax for the products and services they offer at each of their respective centers.

COMMON PRODUCT PRICING

Please Note:
The following prices are The UPS Store® recommended pricing and you may need to adjust them to reflect your center's pricing.

BROCHURES

Brochures are essential for any business to introduce its company and offerings to customers. With up to 6 vertical spaces packed with important information, brochures are the perfect choice to advertise products and services.

NEWSLETTERS, CATALOGS & BOOKLETS

Tried and true, newsletters, catalogs & booklets remain the marketing tool of choice for retailers to share their business news and promote new product lines. They can help you reach your customer base, showcase your products, and share special offers.

Saddle stitch binding is recommended for booklets up to 60 pages (15, 11x17 sheets). If a higher page count is requested, suggest an alternative binding option.

PRINTING COMPONENT PRICING

Please Note:

The following prices are The UPS Store® recommended pricing and you may need to adjust them to reflect your center's pricing.

GRAPHIC DESIGN & DOCUMENT CREATION

If your business is in need of a new logo, a fresh business card look, or a bright poster idea, we can help you excel with clean designs. We provide print consultations and design proof sessions so you're driving the design, without any of the worries of designing it yourself.
