

Sergeant - NC State University Police Department

NC State University is one of the nation's preeminent research enterprises and the university of choice for accomplished, high-performing students from around the world. With more than 39,000 students and more than 10,000 faculty and staff, NC State is a comprehensive university known both for its leadership in interdisciplinary innovation and its sense of tight-knit community. NC State is located in North Carolina's Research Triangle region, home to many of the country's leading technology, research and pharmaceutical companies. NC State's Centennial Campus, a national model for public-private research parks, is home to 70-plus university academic units working alongside more than 70 corporate, government and nonprofit partners.

The NC State University Police Department consists of 60 sworn officers, a 911 center and a variety of specialized units that include K9 Explosives Unit, Mounted Unit, Criminal Investigations, Threat Assessment Unit, Community Relations Unit and Special Events and Emergency Management Unit.

NC State is looking to fill a vacant Sergeant's Position on Patrol. Requirements are to be able to perform as fully functioning supervisors with a minimum of 4 years of experience in law enforcement, have attained an Advanced Law Enforcement Certificate, or out of state equivalent, and have at least an associate degree (or 60 hours of college credit).

Benefits include Medical, Dental, and Vision, Flexible Spending Account, Retirement Programs, Disability Plans, Life Insurance, Accident Plan, Paid Time Off and Other Leave Programs, 12 Holidays Each Year, and No Cost Tuition for Sworn Law Enforcement.

Base pay is $81,202. Final salary is commensurate with experience.

The Police Department's website is HERE and you can apply for this positions HERE.